

MAGNETIC Moon of Purpose

The first, Magnetic moon is the moment when we naturally, effortlessly attract our purpose for the entire 13 Moon year. We are ourselves magnetic, pulling in the next piece of our destiny. The moon has an intensity - a density - as we draw in people, events, and a preview of the whole year's unfolding. Our purpose will be the refrain every moon, and finding it now, early on, is almost unwieldy, so we have to be patient with ourselves and the process of a potent new beginning. The overwhelm will sort itself in time, and some tired parts of us will fall away to make room for the year's changes. The Magnetic moon is a rush of new possibilities. Balance the excitement with the stillness of centering, strengthening your magnetism for holiness - instead of hard karma.

The bathers scrub their feet, bending in beautiful curves, mapping the contours of the body, that kingdom to which they've returned.
